THE SHRINERS' MARCH.

(WITH A FEW REMARKS.)

HASH-EESH PREPARED BY MAJES AH YARRUM.

Not too fast_ unless the spirit moves you.

170° F.

p cres. "The Camels are coming."

"From the desert I come to thee."

'Tis an echo of some familiar strain,

What is it?

Ah!

Copyright, 1893, by The John Church Co.
Entered at Stationers Hall.

The Camels' fairy footsteps.

ff

ff

'Tis like a dream.

Where have I heard this before?

Hic

(Arabic Latin.) Hic.

Hic

A little hoarse, but —

ff Shriners' Evening Hymn. (Ancient Arabic.)

Attacca.

ffff Where was I at?

rit. Weary.

a tempo.

Get up: Dromedary.

Marziale.

Familiar, but a little off the key in spots.

Away off but jolly.

The Shriners' Pledge.

Presto.

The Oasis in sight.
